WELCOME ALL VETS EVERYWHERE INC.
I KNOW WAR
When I was young I heard of war but did not know it.
I learned of war but did not know it.
I trained for war but did not know it.
I went to war and I was apprehensive about it.
I fought the war and was afraid of it.
I was hurt in the war and I still feel it.
I saw death in the war and learned to despise it.
I came back from the war but I still live with it.
I told stories of the war and learned to cope with it.
I lived life with war and learned to hate it.
I now know war and it haunts me still.
